PART B) Activity description

We are curious to know what you’re planning! In this part, you should describe your activity with more words. Note that the grants committee will by large base their decision on the pool’s award criteria (§4 in the guidelines). You can find the guidelines and read more about the grants committee at nordicyouth.org.

1. Describe your activity idea (max. 500 words)

What kind of activity you are planning (e.g., a summer camp, political seminar, hike)? What are you going to do?
2. How does your activity contribute to the establishment of new youth communities in the Nordics? (max. 200 words)

   Is the activity something completely new or are you bringing new participants/people together or are you focusing on new, relevant subjects in your activity?

3. How is the activity based on the voluntary work of young people? (max. 300 words)

   Who came up with the idea? Are young people planning and/or conducting the event(s)? Note that according to §2.2–2.3, activities must be managed by young people and based on voluntary work.
4. Target groups: Which are the main target groups of the activity? (max. 100 words)

Including: Where do the participants come from, and how many do you expect to participate?

5. Describe the Nordic relevance and Nordic collaboration of the activity (max. 200 words)
6. SDGs: Which of the UN’s 17 Sustainable Development Goals does your activity work with?

Please, briefly describe which and how they are implemented (max. 200 words).

7. Anchoring: Is it possible that the partners involved can continue the cooperation after the end of the activity?

Briefly describe if and how the project can live on after the end of the activity (max. 100 words).
